

Duncan Rudolph Elie

EASTHAM — Duncan Rudolph Elie passed away on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2010, after a brief illness. He was the son of the late Rudolph Frank Elie, Jr. and A. Alena Elie, he was predeceased by his sister Pamela Elie Burr, and is survived by his sister Deborah Elie Plowman and her husband Craig of S.C., two nephews, Shaun and Timothy Lawton of Utah and many treasured friends.

Duncan was born in Boston, Mass. He was a graduate of Suffolk University and served in the U.S. Navy. In 1994 he left Boston for a wonderful new life on Cape Cod. He was an accomplished carpenter by trade, an avid reader, loved fishing with his buddies and playing his steel drums with the Pans of Paradise at Rock Harbor. Recently he completed writing a novel on the Civil War.

Duncan was well known in Eastham for his trademark brown van topped with his funky camouflaged canoe. He was a devoted brother, loyal friend and wonderful neighbor and will be deeply missed.

A celebration of his life was held in Eastham overlooking the Town Cove.

To contact his family: carolinaplowman@hotmail.com.