

Edward L. Schneiderhan

EASTHAM — Edward L. Schneiderhan, 90, passed away on Monday, Jan. 18, 2010. He was an Eastham resident, formerly residing in Weymouth.

Born June 8, 1919, in Quincy, Ed graduated from Quincy Trade School and the Fore River Ship Yard Apprentice program and worked at the Hingham Ship Yard. He married Edna Marie Burns on April 25, 1942.

He became the electrical supervisor for the Boston & Maine Railroad until he retired. He then went to work for Harvard University as a building and grounds supervisor until his retirement. Ed was currently employed as the fire alarm and electrical inspector for the town of Provincetown.

Ed was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Edna; siblings Joseph, Albert, Mary and Robert; and granddaughter Melanie Shaffer. He is survived by a son, Edward (Jean) of Glenview, Ill.; a daughter, Barbara Jean (Philip) of Castle Rock, Colo.; granddaughters Michele Corrigan (John) of Washington, N.H., and Mindy Fisher (John) of Jacksonville, Fla.; grandsons William Melody of Denver, David Melody (Sarah) of Lawrence, Kan., and Stephen Melody of Eastham; great-grandsons Brennan Corrigan, Devin Shaffer, Daniel Fisher and Matthew Fisher; sisters-in-law Barbara Langdon, Mary Burns and June Schneiderhan; and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 23, in St. Peter the Apostle Church, 11 Prince St., Provincetown.

Nickerson Funeral Home

508-255-0259