

Grace R. Davis

EASTHAM — Grace R. Davis was born on June 15, 1915 in the Bronx, N.Y. and died on May 13, 2010 in Brewster, Mass. She is survived by her niece Graceann Hattar and by many loving friends. She was predeceased by her husband Robert R. Davis, her sister Arleen R. Ventrelli, and her brother-in-law William "Eddie" Ventrelli.

Grace worked for Mead Westvaco in New York for many years before retiring to Eastham in 1972. She also held many positions in both her Tuckahoe, New York and Eastham churches. She was a soloist, a choir member, trustee, deaconess, President of the United Methodist Women, among other positions.

She was an avid reader, always holding a book in her hands. Crossword puzzles were a daily challenge. She worked and volunteered at the Eastham Public Library from 1972 until 2010.

Grace will be affectionately remembered by friends and family for her wit and wisdom and her dry sense of humor and for the positive attitude with which she embraced life.

A private burial will take place at the Massachusetts National Cemetery in Bourne, Mass., and a church service will be held on Saturday, May 29 at 2 p.m. at the Eastham United Methodist Church.

Donations in her memory may be made to the Eastham United Methodist Church at 3200 State Highway, Eastham Mass., 02642.
