

Norma S. Ingalls

BREWSTER — Norma S. Ingalls, 89, died Friday, Jan. 29, 2010, at Pleasant Bay Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Brewster after a brief illness.

Born in Marlborough, she was the daughter of the late Louis F. Ingalls and Marion (Searles) Ingalls and was a graduate of Marlborough High School. She had resided in Eastham since 1970.

Ms. Ingalls worked for many years as a merchandise buyer for several national department stores and had been employed for many years by the former Buttner's of Hyannis. She also volunteered at the Eastham Council of Aging Thrift Shop. Norma was also an avid Red Sox fan. In the course of her business travels in the 1950s and '60s she would travel on the same trains as the Red Sox players, who affectionately called her

"Red" for her bright red hair.

She is survived by many friends in the Eastham area and several cousins.

Nickerson Funeral Home of Orleans is in charge of arrangements. Burial will be held at the convenience of the family.
