

Pamela B. Caldwell

ORLEANS — Pamela Butler Caldwell, 78, of Orleans, formerly of Westfield and North Eastham, passed away on Tuesday evening surrounded by the love of family and friends after an extended battle with cancer at Epoch of Brewster.

Born in Westfield, Mrs. Caldwell was the daughter of Alden Francis Butler and Florence Quinn Butler. She is predeceased by her husband of many years, Eben Caldwell. She is survived by her brother, Peter A. Butler of Pinehurst, N.C.; daughters, Sarah D. Caldwell of Orleans and Candy Caldwell Kennedy and her husband Douglas Kennedy, and grandchildren, Kate and Conor Kennedy, all of Dublin, Ohio.

Mrs. Caldwell was a graduate of Westfield High School and Westbrook Junior College. She was a former high school basketball player and avid sports fan. Mrs. Caldwell enjoyed many years of cheering on her favorite teams, including the Patriots and the UCONN Women's Huskies. She spent many days planning, working and enjoying her gardens.

An active member of the Federated Church of Orleans, PEO, and the Mayflower Point Association, Mrs. Caldwell also served as past president of the Westfield Women's Club; former chairman of the Westfield Republican City Committee; former member of the Westfield School Board and School Building Committee, and served for many years in multiple capacities at First Congregational Church of Westfield.

A memorial service will be held 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 15, at the Federated Church of Orleans.

In lieu of flowers, gifts in her memory may be made to VNA Hospice, 434 Route 134, Suite G1, South Dennis, MA 02660.

Nickerson Funeral Home

508-255-0259