

Richard A. Carey

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Richard A. Carey, 68, formerly of Eastham, died peacefully in his sleep on Saturday, Sept. 12, 2009, surrounded by family after losing a brave battle with stomach cancer.

He leaves behind his son and best friend, Richard Jr.; two sisters, Elizabeth and her husband Albert Valdez of Albuquerque, and Agnes and her husband Richard Holmes of Dennis; two brothers, Robert and his wife Ann of Wilson, N.C., and Fred and his wife Mary of Orleans; an aunt, Agnes Mardarosian of Woburn; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. He also leaves behind two former wives, Linda Carey of Albuquerque and Linda Henderson, formerly of Chatham. Richard was predeceased by his mother, Lucy (Graham) Carey; his father, Fred Carey Sr.; a brother, William; and sisters Patricia Emond and Alice Carey.

Richard, a friend of Bill W. for the last 30 years, worked hard to bring his life back on track and built a successful landscaping business. He worked and played side by side with his son in Motocross competition across the Southwest and were national champions. His favorite spot to find peace and tranquility was Sedona, Ariz.

Richard loved animals and was always bringing home a stray or hurt animal to nurse back to health. He was looking forward to being with his dog, Tuesday, again
