

Robert L. Carey

WILSON, N.C. — Robert L. Carey, formerly of Eastham, passed away peacefully at home after a losing battle with cancer, on June 22, 2010.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Ann (McPhee), daughters Catherine, of Wilson, Theresa Fuller of Rumford, R.I., and Gail and her husband Kevin Snow of Riverside, R.I., and son Robert of Demorest, Ga., 4 grandchildren, Lauren and Kevin Fuller, Ron and Brandon Carey, one brother Fred and his wife Mary of Orleans, and two sisters, Elizabeth and her husband Albert Valdez of Albuquerque, N.M. and Agnes and her husband Dick Holmes of Dennis and many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by brothers, William and Richard and sisters, Patricia, and Alice.

Bob entered a career with the Air Force at the young age of 17, served in the Korean War, and the Vietnam War and retired at 38. He then worked with the Veterans Affairs and the town of Eastham Highway Dept. and was on the board to design the new Police Station. Upon retirement he moved to Florida, then settled in North Carolina.

Interment will be at the National Cemetery in Bourne at a later date.
