

Teri Bulman

WEST YARMOUTH — Teri (Fisher) Bulman, 54, of W. Yarmouth, died peacefully on May 10, 2010, at Cape Cod Hospital.

Teri is the daughter of Merlin and Edna Fisher of Fort Myers, Florida, and the mother to Cory Mullin of Harwich and Shannon Mullin of Eastham. She was born in Binghamton, N.Y., and moved to the Cape with her family in 1969.

Teri was a 1974 graduate of Dennis-Yarmouth Regional High School. Teri worked for the Stop and Shop Company for many years in South Yarmouth and Orleans. She worked in landscaping and eventually opened her own cleaning service. She was very artistic and had a passion for cooking and gardening, and loved spending time on the beach, taking walks with her beloved dog Sam.

Teri is also survived by her sister Debbie Marascia and her husband Anthony of Conklin, N.Y.; her sister Trudy Babineau and her husband Donald of South Dennis; and her brother Steven Fisher and his wife Paula of Framingham. She also leaves her grandson Aidan Mullin and his mother, Cory's fiancée, Annie O'Meara. Teri will be truly missed by many nieces and nephews and her close friend Mike Northup.

Burial services will be private.
